THE NEW ERA

INDEX TO VOLUME 60

January to December 1979

ARTICLES

A Continuous Process of Change and Refinement: A Course on Human Rights and Responsibilities: Simon Fisher, Christopher David, Berna Fitzgerald, David Small 6/202

A Day at Enrique Laubscher Jardin De Ninos, Mexico, D.F.: Lillian and Virgil Logan 3/117

All Doubtful, Most Wrong, Some Disastrous — A Critique of Assumptions in World Studies: John Wilson 2/44

All the World's a Television Screen — The Media as a Resource for Learning: Derek Heater 2/62

Beyond Scale: The Work of the Other Schumacher: Nick Peacey 1/18

Britain in the Changing World: The Need for Improvements in Schools: David Smeeton 4/122

China: An Ancient Culture, A Recent Perspective: H. Stanley Payne 1/26

Classroom Aids for Teaching English: Leslie A. Smith 3/105

Clio's Clients: Some Implications of Learning History: James L. Henderson 5/188

Community Primary Schools: A Tentative Overview: Tim Paskett 2/91

Direct Democracy: Peter Cadogan 1/2

Educational Innovations in the Republic of Ireland: John Harris 3/95

History in Search of a Future: Leslie A. Smith 5/162

Ideology in Education and Society: A Dispute in the Staff Common Room: Angela West 4/133

Integrated Models in Education: Nava Butler-Por 3/99

Introducing Changes in World Studies: A Summary of Do's and Don'ts: Simon Fisher 6/235

Learning About India: A Project for School and Community: Andrew Shaw and David Doyle 6/207

Learning for Change — A Project Among Rural Women in Portugal: Teresa S. C. Gomes 2/70

Lifelong Education and the Search for Peace — Conclusions from an International Conference: Yoshiko Nomura 2/77

Links With Schools in Other Countries: Concepts, Skills and Attitudes: Andrew Shaw 4/154

Looking to Our Future: An Evening Class for School and Community: Hugh Starkey 4/141

"Luncheon is Served" — An Experiment at a One-Day Conference: Alec Knight 2/73

Management Development in In-Service Education: John Elliott-Kemp and Graham Williams 3/113

Schools and Their Influence on the Delinquent Careers of Juveniles: Nick Harris 1/11

Self-Help and Education in a World of Change — The Case of the Fulani N'ai in Nigeria: R. Jackson 2/66

Standing Conference on Education for International Understanding: Michael Storm 6/237

Starting in Our Own Area — A Local Project in Development Education: Alfred Wilkinson 2/75

Strategies of Change in Global Education: Recommendations for the United States: Robert Hanvey 4/128

Talking Things Over: Counselling as a Feature of the Special Education of Disturbed Pupils: Dr Mary D. Wilson OBE 2/82

The Advantages of Community Schools: Nicholas Gillett 2/87

The Climate of Commitment: Reflections on a Weekend Workshop: Margot Brown and Marion Flood 4/145

The Teacher's Responsibility: Aims and Outcomes of a Weekend Conference: Martin Davis 4/150

The College of the Bahamas — A New Venture: Norman Fox and Lindsay Townsend 1/22

The United Nations: Your Window on the World: Marion R. Brown 5/197

The Whole World to Choose From: Planning a Study-Visit to a Developing Country: Tim Bartlett 6/230

The World's Children: How Are They Faring?: Marilyn N. Maxson 5/192

Towards a New Breed of Trainers and Trainees: Self-Portrait of a Change-Agent: Kamla Bhasin 4/156

Two Sides of the Same Coin — Development Education, Multicultural Education: Dave Hicks 2/55

What Ought We To Do? — Values and Action in the Classroom: Tony Hepworth 2/48

Working For Change — Insights and Homilies (Editorial Note) 4/133

World Studies on the Runway: One Year's Progress Towards a Core Curriculum: John Aucott, Hilary Cox, Alan Dodds, David Selby 6/212

Writing in the Secondary School English Lesson: Jo Kelly 3/106

AUTHORS

Aucott, John; Cox, Hilary; Dodds, Alan; Selby, David: World Studies on the Runway: One Year's Progress Towards a Core Curriculum 6/212

Bartlett, Tim: The Whole World to Choose From: Planning a Study-Visit to a Developing Country 6/230

Bhasin, Kamla: Towards a New Breed of Trainers and Trainees: Self-Portrait of a Change-Agent 4/156

Brown, Margot and Flood, Marion: The Climate of Commitment: Reflection on a Weekend Workshop 4/145
Brown, Marion R.: The United Nations Your Window on the World 5/197
Butler-Por, Nava: Integrated Models in Education 3/99

Cadogan, Peter: Direct Democracy 1/2
Cox, Hilary; Aucott, John; Dodds, Alan; Selby, David: World Studies on the Runway: One Year's Progress Towards a Core Curriculum 6/212

David, Christopher; Fitzgerald, Berna; Fisher, Simon; Small, David: A Continuous Process of Change and Refinement: A Course on Human Rights and Responsibilities 6/202
Davis, Martin: The Teacher's Responsibility: Aims and Outcomes of a Weekend Conference 4/150
Dodds, Alan; Aucott, John: Cox, Hilary Selby, David: World Studies on the Runway: One Year's Progress Towards a Core Curriculum 6/212
Doyle, David and Shaw, Andrew: Learning About India: A Project for School and Community 6/207

Elliott-Kemp, John and Williams, Graham: Management Development in In-Service Education 3/113

Fisher, Simon: Introducing Changes in World Studies: A Summary of Do's and Don'ts 6/235
Fisher, Simon; David, Christopher; Fitzgerald, Berna; Small, David: A Continuous Process of Change and Refinement: A Course on Human Rights and Responsibilities 6/202
Fitzgerald, Berna; Fisher, Simon; David, Christopher; Small, David: A Continuous Process of Change and Refinement: A Course on Human Rights and Responsibilities 6/202
Flood, Marion and Brown, Margot: The Climate of Commitment: Reflections on a Weekend Workshop 4/145
Fox, Norman and Townsend, Lindsay: The College of the Bahamas 1/22

Gillett, Nicholas: The Advantages of Community Schools 2/87
Gomes, Teresa S.C.: Learning for Change — A Project Among Rural Women in Portugal 2/70

Hanvey, Robert: Strategies of Change in Global Education: Recommendations for the United States 4/128
Harris, John: Educational Innovations in in the Republic of Ireland 3/95
Harris, Nick: Schools and Their Influence on the Delinquent Careers of Juveniles 1/11
Heater, Derek: All the World's a Television Screen — The Media as a Resource for Learning 2/62
Henderson, James L.: Clio's Clients: Some Implications of Learning History 5/188
Hepworth, Tony: What Ought We To Do? Values and Action in the Classroom 2/48

Hicks, Dave: Two Sides of the Same Coin — Development Education, Multicultural Education 2/55

Jackson, R.: Self-Help and Education in a World of Change — The Case of the Fulani N'ai in Nigeria 2/66

Kelly, J.: Writing in the Secondary School English Lesson 3/106
Knight, Alec: "Luncheon is Served" — An Experiment at a One-Day Conference 2/73

Logan, Lillian and Virgil: A Day at Enrique Laubscher Jardin De Ninos, Mexico, D.F. 3/117

Maxson, Marilyn N.: The World's Children: How Are They Faring? 5/192

Nomura, Yoshiko: Lifelong Education and the Search for Peace — Conclusions from an International Conference 2/77

Payne, H. Stanley: China: An Ancient Culture, A Recent Perspective 1/26
Peskett, Tim: Community Primary Schools: A Tentative Overview 2/91

Selby, David; Aucott, John; Cox, Hilary; Dodds, Alan; World Studies on the Runway: One Year's Progress Towards a Core Curriculum 6/212
Shaw, Andrew: Links with Schools in Other Countries: Concepts, Skills and Attitudes 4/154
Shaw, Andrew and Doyle, David: Learning About India: A Project for School and Community 6/207
Small, David; Christopher, David; Fisher, Simon; Fitzgerald, Berna: A Continuous Process of Change and Refinements: A Course on Human Rights and Responsibilities 6/202
Smeeton, David: Britain in the Changing World: The Need for Improvements in Schools 4/122
Smith, Leslie A.: Classroom Aids for Teaching English 3/105
Smith, Leslie A.: History in Search of Future 5/162
Starkey, Hugh: Looking to Our Future: An Evening Class for School and Community 4/141
Storm, Michael: Standing Conference on Education for International Understanding 6/237

Townsend, Lindsay and Fox, Norman: The College of the Bahamas 1/22

West, Angela: Ideology in Education and Society: A Dispute in the Staff Common Room 4/133
Wilkinson, Alfred: Starting in Our Own Area — A Local Project in Development Education 2/75
Williams, Graham and Elliott-Kemp, John: Management Development in In-Service Education 3/113
Wison, John: All Doubtful, Most Wrong, Some Disastrous — A Critique of Assumptions in World Studies 2/44
Wilson, Dr Mary D.: Talking Things Over: Counselling as a Feature of the Special Education of Disturbed Pupils 2/82

BOOKS REVIEWED

Children's Acquisition of Mathematics: Ernest Choat 5/198
Irregularly Bold: James L. Henderson 2/79
The Unbridled Ego: James L. Henderson 2/79 & 3/94

REVIEWERS

Andrews, Rex 2/79
Smith, L. A. 5/198

LETTERS

H. Baro 5/184
Dinesh P. Buch 5/171
Elizabeth Campbell 5/164
Sister Maura Garry 5/175
Dot Jensen 5/166
Dr Mani Kamerkar 5/172
Abdulfattah Kojack 5/173
Judith Zinsser Lippmann 5/178
Georgij Iwanowicz Podlucki 5/180
James Porter 1/IBC
Dr H. Schaefer 5/184
H. Schnaitmann 5/184
Dr K. C. Vyas 5/169

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS TO NEW ERA

1/10, 1/17, 1/37, 1/IBC
2/47, 2/54, 2/61, 2/65, 2/69, 2/75, 2/76
3/86, 3/90, 3/104, 3/112, 3/115, 3/120
4/127, 4/131, 4/140, 4/144, 4/149, 4/153, 4/155
5/175, 5/183, 5/187, 5/196, 5/198
6/207, 6/211, 6/229, 6/234, 6/237, 6/IBC

EDITORIALS

Nick Peacey: How Great is Big? 1/1
Robin Richardson: Tensions in World and School 2/41
Strategies of Change 4/121
Debate and Decision 6/201
Leslie A. Smith: Creating Educational Centres 3/81
History in Search of a Future 5/161

REPORTS

WEF News: United States — Stephen Burns 1/38
England — Raymond King, Egypt — A. El Koussy 1/39
Expansion of the New Era and Support for National Sections: Antony Weaver 1/40
WEF Annual General Meeting and English Section Day, 1979: Graham Baines 5/199
Accountability in Education: Betty Adams 1/21

OBITUARY

Mr H. A. T. Child 1/39

THE NEW ERA, 1979 Incorporating THE WORLD STUDIES BULLETIN and IDEAS

Volume 60 numbers 2, 4 and 6 were joint issues with numbers 47, 48 and 49 of the World Studies Bulletin (ISSN 0309 1341). Numbers 3 and 5 were joint issues with Ideas (ISSN 0305 7348) numbers 40 and 41.